

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Master Sergeant Warren L. Aas' dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize these patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Master Sergeant Aas has devoted over 27 years of his life to the service of this country and state; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

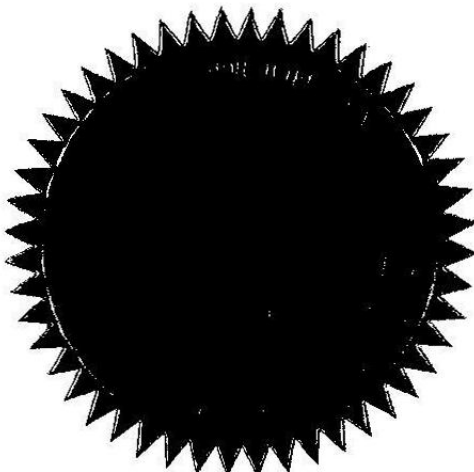

Whereas, Master Sergeant Aas continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Master Sergeant Warren L. Aas for over 27 years of dedicated, outstanding service to this country and state:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 4, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and the United States.

MASTER SERGEANT WARREN L. AAS DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Third Day of October in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
